Introduction

Someshwar Vidnyan Mahavidyalaya recognizes the importance of gender equality and the empowerment of its students. As part of its commitment to creating a safe and inclusive campus environment, the institute conducts a gender audit at the beginning of each year. This audit collects gender-wise and caste category data, which is utilized for academic planning and accessing different non-governmental scholarships. The data obtained through this process helps the institute tailor its educational programs to meet the specific needs and aspirations of its students.

To foster the empowerment and confidence of girls on campus, the institute organizes various social activities. The Nirbhay Kanya Abhiyan aims to raise awareness and ensure the safety of girls. Initiatives like Lek Vachva Desh Vachva and street plays on Mahila Sabalikaran (women empowerment) serve as platforms for highlighting women's issues and encouraging girls to take leadership roles in society.

Recognizing the importance of a safe campus environment, the institute has established a Women's Grievance Cell. This cell serves as a support system for female students and addresses any complaints or concerns related to their well-being. Additionally, the campus is equipped with CCTV cameras and round-the-clock security personnel, ensuring the safety and security of all-students.

The institute also encourages the active participation of girls in cultural and sports activities. Various events and competitions are organized where girls are highly motivated to showcase their talents and skills. The institute takes pride in the high participation of girls in these activities, reflecting their confidence and enthusiasm. Girls from the institute often participate in university-level competitions such as Swarrang, Tarangan, and Swayamsiddha, where they represent the institute and demonstrate their capabilities.

In recent years, the institute has witnessed remarkable achievements by its female students. One notable example is a TYBCS-student who represented the institute in a national archery competition after qualifying at the university level. Such achievements not only showcase the talent and dedication of the girls but also inspire others to strive for excellence.

The institute also commemorates significant days to celebrate the contributions of women. On the occasion of Women's Day, various activities are organized, including essay-writing competitions on women's issues and commemorations of the work of Krantijyoti Savitribai Phule and Rajmata Jijau, the brave-women of India. These activities provide a platform for students, both girls, and boys, to reflect on the achievements and struggles of women in society and promote gender-equality.

In conclusion, Someshwar Vidnyan Mahavidyalaya is committed to fostering a safe and inclusive campus environment that empowers its students, particularly girls. Through initiatives such as the gender audit, empowerment activities, women's grievance cell, and the promotion of participation in cultural and sports events, the institute strives to create an atmosphere where girls can excel, express themselves, and contribute to society. The remarkable achievements of female students in various competitions and their active participation in events reflect the success of these initiatives. By celebrating women's achievements and promoting gender-equality, the institute prepares its students to become confident and empowered individuals who can make a positive impact on society.

Haldi-Kunku Ceremony

Organized on

20th January 2021

Report of Haldi Kunku Ceremony

1. Title of the activity: “Haldi-Kunku” ceremony celebration

2. Date of conduction of the activity: 20 Jan. 2021

3. Objectives of the practice: to encourage women to get together to celebrate their role in society and communicate goals with each other for the New Year.

4. Context:

The practice of Haldi Kunku is said to have emerged during the Peshwa rule. While the men were busy fighting battles, the women did not get a chance to leave the house. So the ladies of the royal families would invite their married friends and shower them with expensive gifts like saris or jewellery.

The haldi kumkum ceremony provided them the chance to do what every woman enjoys: get dressed up, leave the house, meet other women, and connect with them over delectable foods (in this case, kari panha and vatli dal). They even got to leave with a small gift that could be utilised in the kitchen or as personal decoration. And based on the number of friends and family members somebody could invite and be welcomed in turn, they got to do this more than once. Many women's life would have been busy and joyful during this time because the haldi kunku celebrations start on Sankranti and last far into February.

5. The practice:

In the ongoing month of Makar Sankranti celebration, the ladies teaching staff of Someshwar Science College Someshwar Nagar Tal .Baramati, Dist.: Pune, had organized a small event of Haldi Kumkum in one of the classroom of the college, on 20 Jan.2021. We called it a festival because we celebrate feminism and femininity. The program was curated and piloted entirely by women, with the stage being offered only to women.

This event was participated by all the women teaching staff from all the departments including Microbiology, Chemistry, Zoology, Botany, Electronics, Mathematics and lady administrative staff of the college. They all recited traditional ukhane along with haldi Kumkum celebration. Dressed in traditional Maharashtrian saree and nath, women put each other haldi and Kumkum followed by having snacks and made the event worthwhile ad they came together under one roof. All really enjoyed it a lot and dispersed with the hope that such events should be organized every year to give teachers a chance to spend valuable time with each other. All teachers were provided with refreshments.
